

In consideration of all passengers during this age of full planes and hectic air travel, please do NOT allow cell phone use during flight. Use of cell phones would create an excessively loud environment in which tempers would flare and no peace could be had.

Do we really want to establish a section for cell phones, just like we did for smokers? It would be the same nuisance to other passengers. Thank you!